

1. Make a Mexican recipe. Write instructions on how to make your dish. Take photos or draw if you wish.	2. Collect holiday brochures about Mexico. Plan your ideal Mexican holiday.	3. Look at the work of Picasso. Portrait of Dora Maar. Draw a member of your family in the same style.
4. Find out about a famous Mexican. Draw a timeline of their life.	Term 3 Homework: Mexico Each week, choose one of the different homework options on this page. Good luck! 	5. Write a fact file about a Mexican animal.
6. Produce a 3-D map of Mexico/part of Mexico.		8. Collect photographs on the theme of 'unity'. They can be cut out of a magazine or newspaper, taken then printed or emailed in to the office. Be ready to explain how they illustrate the value.
7. Video yourself reenacting a part of Mexican history, ancient or modern.
8. Write a story / comic book about Mexican sport e.g. football, wrestling	9. Find a piece of Mexican music you really like, less than 3 minutes long. Find a way to share it with the class.	10. Make a timer for 1 minute. Record three things you can do in one minute e.g. write your name 10 times.